Perched above the clouds on Suzhou's tallest skyscraper, Niccolo Suzhou's arrival lobby is located on L115, granting impeccable check-in experiences for hotel guests.

Architecture and Design

The new Suzhou landmark towers majestically above the city - a shimmering glass tower shaped like a fishtail, which was designed as an auspicious tribute to the rivers and canals of the city known as "the Venice of the East". It was designed by internationally-renowned architect Kohn Pederson Fox, whose other iconic global landmarks include Roppongi Hills in Tokyo, super towers Lotte World Tower in Seoul, Shanghai World Financial Centre and Hong Kong's International Commerce Centre.

"Beijing Girl"

"Beijing Girl" series by Chinese artist Zhang Xiang Ming sets the scene for the hotel's fashionable chic address. Depicting urban life and the spirit of young women in contemporary society, Beijing Girl's hypnotising eyes, rosy cheeks and symmetric face and hairstyle captivates guests. "

“Stellar Flow”

The design policy of this masterpiece is respect of nature. It creates many effects using variety of techniques and material. The art concept is voyage into stellar flow. The grand astronomical activities are around us. They are solemn, magnificent and amazing. We want to welcome visitors with its beauty and shine.
